

A2B Aarhus and International Community Aarhus welcomes you to

Aarhus Summer School 2021 Language, Culture and Leisure

Monday, July 12, to Friday, July 16, 2021 - In the very centre of Aarhus

Aarhus Summer School 2021 offers you a week of intensive Danish classes combined with cultural events in and around Aarhus. Every morning for five days you start with Danish classes at the A2B Language Center in the centre of Aarhus. On afternoons, and maybe some evenings, you can participate in cultural events with your fellow students. We have put together an exciting and varied programme that includes excursions, film, restaurants, museums, and much more (see the programme on the flip side).

The Summer School might be the right for you, if you are an:

- Employee at a company, university or academy in or near Aarhus
- International student
- International spouse

And you wish to spend the summer in Aarhus because:

- You like the city and want to learn more about it
- You can't go home because of COVID-19 or other reasons
- You are considering starting a life and a career here
- You want to expand your network, get new friends, and have a good time
- You want to take part in a lively programme of social and cultural activities and at the same time improve your Danish

Facts about the course

Aarhus Summer School offers Danish lessons for 3 hours per day, 9am-12am at the A2B Language Center, Vestergade 58 N, Aarhus. 1 hour lunchbreak from 12am to 1pm and a social/cultural programme from 1pm-3pm (some evening events).

Price

Total price is DKK 4.995 for 5 days including language training and events (special events like restaurants will cost extra).

Summer School Programme

Monday, July 12

9am-12am ● Danish lessons

1pm-3pm ● City Walk

We will start off the week by exploring the city. A professional guide will lead you through more than 1,000 years of history – from the Aros of the Vikings, through to today's Aarhus.

Tuesday, July 13

9am-12am ● Danish lessons

1pm-3pm ● Danish Culture & Society

In many ways, culture is all about expectations – but what are those expectations when navigating the Danish culture? Together we will decode known Danish values such as equality, trust, independence, humor, privacy, self-image, “hygge” and most importantly how they play out in real life.

Wednesday, July 14

9am-12am ● Danish lessons

1pm-3pm ● Gender

This afternoon we will get a guided tour of GENDER – Gender Museum Denmark focuses on the cultural history of the sexes. The museum is one of the few museums in the world that specifically deals with gender issues, equality, body and sexuality.

Thursday, July 15

9am-12am ● Danish lessons

1pm-3pm ● Birthday Parties in Denmark

Celebrating a birthday in Denmark goes with a lot of traditions. What is so special about round birthdays, the role of the national flag, the different types of cakes available for this day and last but not least how do you plan and execute a party for adults and small children “the Danish way”. Together we will have a real birthday party.

Friday, July 16

9am-12am ● Danish lessons

1pm-3pm ● Godsbanen (with guided tour)

Together with a guide we will explore the no less than 10,500 square meters that make up the cultural power center Godsbanen. At Godsbanen you can work in the creative workshops and project rooms, attend one of the more than 400 annual events or maybe go for a walk on the roof. The architecture is worth a visit in itself!

NB: Please, note that the program may be subject to change. You will be notified accordingly should changes occur.

Sign up

Book and pay for this course either by sending an email to sprogaarhus@a2b.dk or via this link:

www.place2book.com/en/sw2/sales/ik7reibgm3

About International Community Aarhus

International Community supports expats and their families during their stay in the Aarhus region. 4,000 people are part of International Community including companies, international employees, accompanying family members, repats and internationally-minded Danes.

About A2B

A2B is a private company specialized in teaching Danish to foreigners. We have several language centers in Denmark and also teach Danish at companies and universities. A2B is a part of the Nordic company AS3. You can read more about us at www.a2b.dk